2011 Philmont Selection Guidelines

1. All applications received by the 3/8/2010 deadline will be considered together. Applications received after the deadlines will be considered later to fill any remaining positions and or to add to the end of the waitlist.

2. Applications must be filled out completely:
  - Applicants must be 14 at the time they go (assume 7/1/2011) or have completed 8th Grade.
  - Scouts must be First Class Rank at least 3 months before departure (by end March 2011)
  - if you are selected a $100 deposit to secure your position must be paid by April 5th Meeting (check payable to Troop278 Ahwatukee or Cash or utilize available Scout Account Funds)

3. Evaluation criteria are: minimum age & rank, troop involvement, participation, camping nights and leadership/other positions held within the troop. Scouts may give other reasons they believe they are well qualified to be on the Philmont crew.

4. Applications will be evaluated by the Lead Crew Advisor &/or Philmont Selection Committee, their decision based on the above criteria judged in their sole discretion will be final – except that in the case of subsequent drop-outs their existing or new choices of alternate candidates will also be final. Initial selections & notifications will be completed by 3/29/10 – including for adult advisors.

5. All participant selections remain dependant on continued compliance with all participant requirements:
  - Make all required payments on time
  - Attend Philmont team planning meetings
  - Attend Philmont Training (as defined by the Crew Leader & Lead Crew Advisor)
  - Complete all required physicals and paperwork on time
  - Meet the Philmont height/weight ratios as agreed with the Lead Crew Advisor
